And the New Ones Put In Also Mem bers of the Democratic Party.

The Board of Aldermen was organized yesterday evening by the re-election of Colonel Lucien L. Bass as president, and the Common Council by the election of Mr. J. S. Bethel as president. Colonel Bass is one of our best business-men and most unflinching Democrats. Mr. Bethel was elected on the Reform ticket and never left high character and good education, and will, it is believed, make a very accept-able presiding officer. After the or-ganization of the two branches of the City Council a joint session was held and the following officers (all Demo-crats) were elected [present incumbents marked with an asteriak] :

or if so, and the old Board is revived, it will be composed wholly of Democrats-viz., the Mayor, Police Justice, and President of the Board of Alderman. Common Conneil.

A large crowd of spectators was present yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Council chamber, when Mr. B. T. August, clerk, called the body to order. A call of the roll showed the following members present: Messrs. Ammons, Archer, Bethel, Bowden, Bryan, Connors, Cutchins, Farrar, Ferriter, Griffin, Griffith, Guy, Hayes, Hudnall, Hughes. Kaufelt, Kaufman, Kendler, Lange, Molloy, Montgomery, Murphy, Owen, Parater, Parrish, Piz-zini, and Starke. On motion of Mr. Owen Mr. Pizzini was made temporary chairman.

Mr. Pizzini took the chair, thanked the body for the honor conferred, and said the first business was the election of a permanent president.

STARTLING AND SURPRISING Mr. Ammons proposed the name of Mr. John S. Bethel. Mr. Owen moved that the election be made unanimous. Agreed to.
Mr. Pizzini appointed Messrs. Bryan

Absent: Messrs. Kelly and Griffin.

The Chair announced that the first officer to be elected was the City Clerk. Mr. Otley nominated Mr. B. T. August, incumbest. Mr. Owen nominated Mr. Joseph M.

Mr. Page rose, not to make a nomi nation, he said, but to second the nomination of one who had been Clerk for many years, and who was thoroughly familiar with the proceedings of the Council. He declared the duties of the Clerk to be delicate ones, and ones which required a thorough acquaint-ance with the archives of the office. In supporting Mr. August, he con-tinued, he was opposing one who was a fellow-countyman, who was his friend, of Mr. Shelton, who, he claimed, was well qualified for the position, only lacking the experience.

The following is the ballot : FOR MR. AUGUST.—Messrs. Adams, Crenshaw, Crump. Davis. Dickerson. Gunn. Otley, Page, Fowers. Robinson, Snead, Wagner, Ammons. Archer. Bowden, Bryau. Cutchins. of the Fire Department, is the present first assistant. He is a tinner by trade, and lives at 910 east Leigh street. Mr. W. H. Cardozo, who is to b son, and has had special charge of the son, and has had special charge of the subject.

In the spirit of conciliation with which the Straightout Democrats met the Democratic Reformers who withdrew from the caucus, several of the old incumbents declined to offer for re-election, and their places were filled by workingmen and others, who, while Democratic in their political history, are most of them Knights of Labor and Reformers. Mesars. Fuqua and Murphy were nominees of the Reformers' caucus.

The Cardinal and the Richmond Dek

The Richmond delegation of Catholies who went on to Baltimore to the installation of Cardinal Gibbons returned yesterday morning via the York-River route. Before the ceremonies hey proceeded to the Cardinal's residence, where Mr. John M. Higgins, who had been chosen chairman, addressed the Cardinal on behalf of the delegation. He said :

"Your Eminence, Cardinal-Arch-bishop of Baltimore, —In the general mison of approbation called forth by the high honor so worthily conferred by our Holy Father Leo XIII., when, in the goodness and wisdom of his heart, he made known to the Catholic world that, appreciative of your great merit, untiring zeal, and devotedness in the cause of our holy religion, he had resolved to create you a prince of the Church, no hearts beat in more loving and joyous sympathy than those of dear old Richmond. Proud as the representatives of your former and evereloved flock, we have journeyed hither to be witnesses of the exaltation to this high dignity of him whom all men love

"In the grand, impressive, ever-memorable ceremonial of to-day, sur-rounded by the greatest embodiment of honored zeal, piety, and intellect America ever beheld, the revered walls of Baltimore's Cathedral shall reecho no more joyous hymns of thanksgiving than shall swell up from our hearts. No more fervid prayers of benediction shall ascend on high than from us, to whom every new crown to thy merit serves but to bind the links of love stronger and closer for him whom we shall always lovingly call 'Our Bishop.' The Cardinal responded with that earnestness of manner so peculiar to him, and spoke in the most affectionate terms of his old parish of Richmond. Sent on to the Grand Jury.
